

Request for Amicus Participation

Case Information

Short case name: _____

Court: _____

Docket Number
(if available): _____

Procedural posture
(e.g. rehearing
petition, en banc,
cert. petition,
merits): _____

Due date for amicus
briefs
(note if tentative): _____

Parties

Please identify all parties on the side for which amicus support is requested: _____

Please identify all parties opposite the side
for which amicus
support is requested: _____

If, to your knowledge,
other companies are involved in related litigation arising out of a related dispute (e.g., other companies in a consolidated case or parallel case in another circuit), please describe. _____

Counsel

In-house counsel: identify and provide contact information for outside counsel with whom we can discuss the case.

Outside counsel: identify and provide contact information for lead in-house counsel with whom we can discuss the case.

Background and Arguments

Factual Background: describe in several paragraphs the legal and factual background giving rise to the case.

E.g.: The Fair Labor Standards Act prohibits . . .

The plaintiff in this case filed a putative collective action against Company A alleging that . . .

Procedural Summary: describe the relevant decision below, briefly noting prior procedural developments as relevant.

E.g.: The district court refused to certify a collective action, reasoning that ___.

The Ninth Circuit granted interlocutory review and reversed by a divided vote. The panel majority rejected Company A's argument that ___. According to the panel majority ___ . . .

Describe the current procedural posture and central arguments that the party seeking amicus support will raise.

E.g.: Company A plans to file a certiorari petition. The petition will present the following questions:

Chamber Interest and Joiners

Describe why the issue implicates the broader interests of the Chamber's membership and what an amicus brief from the Chamber could contribute to the case.

Identify other trade associations with which you plan to speak or who have already agreed to file an amicus brief in the case.

*Please attach case documents to your submission, such as an opinion or relevant filings.