

Trade Means Growth for the District of Columbia

International trade—exports and imports of goods and services—supports 210,000 jobs in the District of Columbia, or more than one in five jobs in the district.

Key facts about trade and jobs:

- The share of DC jobs supported by trade has nearly doubled since the early 1990s.
- Jobs in export-intensive industries offer compensation that averages about 16 percent higher than other jobs.
- Imports let American families stretch their budgets and help U.S. manufacturers keep costs down and competitiveness up.
- Nearly 600 DC companies exported in 2022. Nationally, 97% of trading firms are small-and medium sized enterprises.
- Since 2008, companies that import or export goods have accounted for 3 out of 5 new American jobs.

District of Columbia companies exported $9.8 billion in goods and services in 2023 to more than 140 markets around the world.
